Why should youth become involved in a mentoring program? A mentor is a caring adult who devotes time to a youth. All mentors have the same common goal: to assist youth in achieving their full potential and discovering strengths and interpersonal skills.

Military Youth face stressful situations when starting new schools, moving to unfamiliar areas, and developing brand new friendships. Military Mentoring Programs are a great asset to Military Families. One such program is provided by Big Brothers Big Sisters of America. This agency has established the Military Mentoring Program (MMP) which supports Military children regardless of parent's deployment status, children of fallen, wounded, and disabled Soldiers.

The MMP engages Active Duty, Reserve, Retired Military personnel, and civilians to serve as volunteer mentors for youth. Big Brother Big Sisters of America staff match adult mentors and youth mentees in long-term, one-to-one friendships, and provide professional support for volunteers, children, and families during the process. The three goals of the MMP is:

- ♦ strengthening the youth's connection with his/her parent and respective community
- ♦ saluting the importance of Military values in youth development and
- ♦ assisting with youth's educational and life achievement goals.

To find a local Big Brothers Big Sisters location that offers the Military Mentoring Program, go to: <http://www.bbbs.org>. A list of mentoring opportunities is available on page 2. For assistance with local mentoring opportunities for youth contact a CYSS Specialist listed on the CYSS Contact page.

Mentoring is a wonderful program that is proven to help youth progress through life's transitions. Building a close, healthy relationship with a trusted adult can be integral in youth's success.

CYSS FOCUSED ARTICLE

Goal Setting for Children and Youth

Goals are intended to highlight an individual's strength and overcome weaknesses. Therefore, goals are unique to a person and when teaching children and youth the importance of goal setting, the following six tips make goal setting simpler:

Tip #1: Start Small—Initially, start with small short-term goals. Assist children and youth with keeping their goal. If it is a long-term goal, identify shorter sub-goals. If you have toddlers, a short term goal is allowing children to pick out their clothes and utilize skills such as buttoning, zipping, and tying.

Tip #2: Get the idea across— Connect youth goals to talents, values, and objectives. Help youth define their goal and review the goal on a daily basis. School age youth might save money for a video game. Discuss with youth the steps and discipline involved in achieving the goal.

Tip #3: Let Youth Choose — Goals are personal and individualized. Youth should set attainable benchmarks for meeting their goal instead of pleasing others. Ask your child for suggestions in setting goals. A Teen may decide to improve overall academic performance. In the process of accomplishing this goal, the youth decides to set attainable benchmarks such as getting organized, take better notes, and improve study habits.

Tip #4: Be Alert to Possibilities — Obstacles during the accomplishment of a goal are possible. Hurdles and setbacks can be a part of the goal setting process and serve as a learning experience to youth. Encourage children and teens to overcome obstacles, and continue with the accomplishment of the goal.

Tip #5: Showing Becomes Reality—Establish the parameters in order to complete the goal. Ask youth, "How will you know when the goal is accomplished?" Help youth in establishing steps for goal completion. Share a childhood story of achievement.

Tip #6: Applaud Effort — Compliment youth on reaching the set goal. Equally important is recognizing the effort and steps accomplished for trying if the initial goal was not obtained.

Today's youth have a lot on their plate. School, planning for college, extra-curricular activities, voluntary service, family obligations, and faith-based obligations are just some of the activities many youth commit to weekly. Goal setting will help youth find success and help develop positive and lifelong habits. Goal setting helps youth develop purpose, increase self-esteem, develop responsibility, gives focus, and promotes organization.

COMMAND/UNIT UPDATES

USACAPOC(A) Family Days

December is always a busy time for units and Commands across the Army Reserve. Between Family Days, Battle Assemblies, and Holiday Parties, many units hosted events during the month of December. Three members of the USACAPOC (A) Teen Council were able to attend Holiday events hosted by their units where they provided information about the Teen Council and other opportunities for other youth within their unit. Below is a brief synopsis of the information the Kaitlyn D.

The 432nd Civil Affairs Battalion hosted their

2014 Holiday Party in Green Bay, WI on December 5-6. Kaitlyn represented the USACAPOC(A) Teen Council by sharing the Teen Council flyer, Tutor.com information, the CYSS newsletter, USACAPOC(A) CYSS Specialist contact information and the Our Military Kids flyer.

Mee'Shaunda R.

The 308th Civil Affairs Brigade hosted their 2014 Holiday Party in Homewood, IL on Saturday, December 6.

Mee'Shaunda represented both the Army Reserve Teen Panel and the USACAPOC (A) Teen Council by sharing information about what accomplishments they have achieved this year. Additionally, Mee'Shaunda shared the CYSS newsletter and CYSS Specialist contact information.

Camille R.

On Sunday, 7 December 2014, Camille delivered a briefing to the Service Members and Families of 352 Civil Affairs Command in MD. Here is some feedback that we received about Camille: "Her briefing was very informative, clear, and professional. I was impressed by her confidence and knowledge of the program. Additionally, she challenged us all to get our respective children involved in the program."
